

COILWORLD

media profile 2015

Coil World is the only magazine dedicated to the world of coil coating and processing. It is your chance to cover the world of coil in a single exclusive buy. We reach a domestic and international audience of more than 10,000 readers involved in coil coating, the fabrication and distribution of pre-painted metals, as well as OEMs in appliance, automotive, construction, HVAC, metal furniture, and many other markets that use coated coil in their products.

Features

Each issue includes case history/success stories that feature coil coating operations, along with various fabrication processes of pre-painted metals. We also feature extensive coverage of Metal Service Center activities such as executive profiles, as well as service center news and success stories. Additionally we report on OEMs who have been successful in using pre-painted metals in their projects and/or products.

In addition, each issue includes the following features:

- Industry news—regulatory information, expansions, mergers & acquisitions, new contracts, etc.
- New Products—new equipment, new materials, new machinery, services, etc.
- Coil Climbers—information on new appointments, promotions, personnel movements within the industry.
- Coil Collateral—new literature announcements (brochures, catalogs, reports, etc) are offered to our readers. Non-advertisers can purchase space in this section to promote their new literature at an agency commissionable rate of $525. Space is equivalent to a 1/6-page including a 4-color copy of the brochure with no more than 50 words of text. Consult publisher for any additional details.
- NCCA Column—In each issue, NCCA's President informs the industry of all current information affecting the marketplace.
- Inside Service Centers—In this section we feature in-depth articles on service center activities, as well as interviews with leading service center executives.
- Metal Roofing Alliance (MRA) column—MRA officials report on the growth and activities of the overall metal roofing market.
